Background

- “The College system is a political system”
- First year: Orientation for 11 Mentors
- Pillars of Program: Leadership, Professional Development & Community Building
- Continuous focus on friendship & connection

Training for Ambassadors

- Orientation for Ambassadors
- Prepare for engagement and response of mentees/scholars
- Helping mentors/ambassadors understand their role as continuous engagement and safety net for mentees/scholars
- Continuing to Focus on Equity-how do we ensure ambassador identities match those of their mentees.

Ambassador Engagement

- Ambassadors committed to 15 hours mentoring or available in communal space
- Ambassadors can learn about higher education as a career field
- Ambassador Staff Meetings
- Cohort Development

Graduate Assistants

Georgia Southern University
Graduate Peer Mentors & Fellows

Georgia Southern University | College of Graduate Studies

First Year Graduate Students

- Began recruiting mentors on a volunteer basis
- Vast majority of graduate students are non traditional and online
- Initially Graduate Assistants were only Peer Mentors
- After 2nd year - graduate students hired to respond to flags, help identify trends and partner with Associate Dean

Pair with Graduate Student Mentors

- “Graduate Students For Graduates”
- “...Assessment Information informs services we provide graduate students with like webinars, speakers and particular in terms of sense of belonging”

Resulting in Increased Programming

- Graduate Students make recommendations for monthly programming series applicable to all graduate students
- Professional development and alignment for Graduate Students in applicable programs (School Counseling, Higher Education Admin, Clinical Psychology)

Graduate Peer Mentors and Fellows

Peer mentors serve the Jack N. Averitt College of Graduate Studies as a resource to first year graduate students. Starting graduate school is a new and exciting journey which often presents new challenges. A student does not need to begin this journey alone. Peer mentors provide support for areas related to a new student's academic, professional, and personal life.

Best Practices for Student Employment

1. Application Procedures
2. Professional Development
3. Learning Framework
4. Feedback & Reflection

Be Clear in Selection Processes

Ensure your selection processes yield the talent you need to succeed.

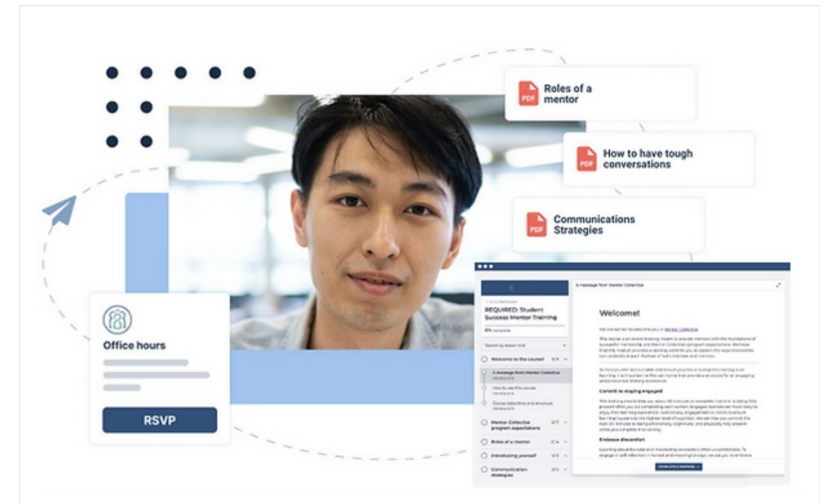

- Write a job description
  - Start with a template or examples!
- Be up front about time commitment and expectations
- Speak to the “why” and the benefits to the student employee

Provide Training

Consider what's available as training for your student employees, including:

- Mentor Training
- DE&I Foundations Course
- Discussion Guides
- Offerings from HR/Student Employment Office
- Existing events and programs
- Partnering with academic or student affairs units to offer custom programs

Iowa GROW® conversations are guided by four quick questions:

1. How is this job fitting in with your academics?
2. What are you learning here that's helping you in school?
3. What are you learning in class that you can apply here at work?
4. Can you give me a couple of examples of things you've learned here that you think you'll use in your chosen profession?
