Subject: What did you just sign up for?

Hi Kelley,

This email contains a rundown of what to expect as a mentor for Uplift University Mentor Collective program.

But first, there are two steps left before we can match you:

- Complete the short matching survey (5 min.)
- Complete the on-demand mentor training (~45 mins.)

COMPLETE TASKS

Here's what to expect:

- We'll use your matching survey to match you with a group of mentees. Need to update that number? Email us.
- You will check in with your mentees
  - We recommend monthly, but talk to your mentee to determine what frequency and method works best.
- You'll log each conversation, shedding critical light on how UpliftU can better support their students.

Do you have any feedback on the mentoring program so far?

We're always happy to chat more, hear your feedback, and learn from your suggestions — feel free to drop us a note!

Take care,

Subject: Have mentorship questions?

Dear Daphne,

Some of your fellow mentors asked us: When will my mentorship start? Why did you need us to sign up at this time?

You are currently in the mentor-matching stage, and you should expect to be connected with your mentees within the next two months.

Why now? Your mentees may be in the midst of their academic experience at UpliftU, or perhaps they are wondering how to network and grow their career opportunities. Having your guidance will greatly increase their chances of success for the future.

Have other questions? Get in touch with us or log onto app.mentorcollective.org for more resources.

Best,

I have really enjoyed having a mentor. I feel confident that if I had a question [my mentor] would be able to help me in any way possible. I asked her if I would have to take different licensing tests if I want to move out of state. She told me her personal experience as well as helped me understand what I would have to do.

—Alexis K., Mentee

I'm always eager to share my personal experiences as an adult student and share some insights and tips to help someone keep organized while managing school/family and work.

—MJ G., Mentor

I think [my mentee] is an incredibly motivated individual with so much potential and it is great to help her navigate all of her activities, help with classes, and answer any academic or personal questions. She tends to want to take on a lot, so we discuss what she would like to prioritize more and what would the long term look like.

—Emma O., Mentor

Ultimately, what you and your mentees speak about is up to you. What are you hoping to accomplish?

Subject: What do you hope for in your mentorship?

Hi Andrew,

If you have not finished completing your onboarding steps - your matching survey or mentor training - please do so by clicking the button below:

COMPLETE TASKS

What are you hoping to get out of your mentorship?

If you haven't asked yourself that yet, now is a great time.

Some examples:

- I hope that my mentee can see me as a helpful resource for their questions about their future.
- I hope that I can serve as a sounding board for their ideas.
- I hope to help my mentee balance their work, school, and life.

Once you're matched, we encourage you to share what you've considered with your mentee as an ice-breaker - don't forget to ask what they're looking to get out of mentorship!

Best,

Subject: Here's what's happening with your mentee match

Hi Jackie,

We are in the process of finding you a mentee.

Why it may be taking longer to find you a match:

- Have you finished your onboarding tasks on app.mentorcollective.org? You may still need to complete your matching survey and finish your online training.

- We haven't found a strong match yet - mentees sign up on a rolling basis, so this can take some time.

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out.

Best,

Wondering what will happen once you complete your steps and get matched?

- You'll decide how you prefer to connect with your mentor.
  - We recommend meeting once a month, but you should let your mentor know what frequency and method works best for you.
  - Remember: as the mentee, it's your job to reach out first!
- You'll decide what you talk about.
  - There are optional Conversation Guides on app.mentorcollective.org that you can use to guide each meeting.
- You'll log each conversation on app.mentorcollective.org or through texts we send you, giving us essential insights on how to better support you and your peers.

My main goal in this mentorship program is to focus on my career development skills. [My mentor] helped me answer the general question of what to do after [receiving my degree]. She answered it by giving her own personal story of how it took some time before she settled down and found a more permanent career.

—Jordan L.

It's been really helpful having someone to chat with about anything that comes up. Most of my noteworthy experiences so far at [my school] aren't based on textbook reading or exercises, but the random messages that resonate with me. [My mentor] has been a great person to ask deep questions to and he gives really impactful insight on all topics of life, school, and music.

While you're waiting to be matched, it's important to consider what you want to achieve in your mentorship.

What you talk about is up to you, but here are a few examples:

- Balancing work, family life, and classes
- Understanding the job market in your field and getting hired
- Boosting your current career
- Financing your Uplift University education
- Achieving academic milestones on time

What questions do you have for your mentor?

Remember, we are always here to support you. Don't hesitate to get in touch!

Best,
