

N.C. A&T Students Need YOU as a Mentor!

Every Student Deserves a Mentor

The Deese College at North Carolina A&T State University is partnering with Mentor Collective to offer incoming first-year students a peer mentor.

- Mentors can help students set and achieve goals, make connections and prepare for their future career.
- Students will be connected with a fellow Deese College student based on interests, area of study, needs and preferences.

Program Expectations

- One-year commitment
- Monthly virtual check-ins (minimum)
- Log your conversations

For questions or additional information, email
Mentor Collective at help@mentorcollective.org.

How To Be a Mentor.

1. Sign up using the registration link below.
2. Complete a brief survey about yourself and your background.
3. We will match you with another Deese College Mentor.
4. Routinely connect with each other throughout the year.
